Foreword

We, the staff of the 1946 Leslayan, have worked diligently to make our book interesting and different. While keeping the content basically the same, we have changed the form and appearance in an effort to make this edition individual and to instill new life in future publications. We wish to thank Miss Wilson for her ideas and work in its supervision.

Many of the girls in the class of 1946 from Lesley will be traveling to all parts of this country and other countries. We hope that this book, by bringing back memories of the hours of pleasure spent in study and play at Lesley College, will help to reunite us in thought and that we may one day meet again in reunion.
The wide green earth is ours to roam,
Each path that beckons, follow free,
But O! these halls with golden memories,
Of thee are ever calling, pleadingly,
In earnestness and truth of soul
The watchfires flare and burn low,
In twilight hours where'er our footsteps roam,
Thy light, thy flaming light, will glow.

To Alma Mater Lesley ours to preserve,
Let our classmates true, cheer for thee,
O, Lesley we sing our praises to thee,
Our friendship which us together binds
And lasting inspiration both of heart and minds
And come what may in years that are to follow
We'll always love thee, Lesley, dear Alma Mater fair.

Etzel Durrle

Class Poem

The Lesley Coat of Arms hanging in the entrance hall is the Coat of Arms of the Lesley Family.

As early as the reign of James II, King of Scotland, from 1437-1460, the family was established in Scotland. In the reign of James IV, Sir Alexander Lesley became a famous general under Gustavus Adolphus, King of Sweden. In 1638 he returned to Scotland and invaded England from Scotland. He was created Earl Lesley in 1641.

When the School was founded in 1909, the family gave permission for the Coat of Arms to be used by the School and the name became "Lesley School," in 1944 the name Lesley School was changed to Lesley College.
Dedication

To you, Dean Clara M. Thurber, we dedicate these pages in appreciation of your guidance and co-operation. The life of a dean with supervising class activities, guiding academic courses, and acting as liaison between faculty and students, added to your regular teaching duties, is far from easy. Yet you, Dean Thurber, have served us successfully for two years.

Dedication

To you, Dr. Trentwell Mason White, we also dedicate this book in appreciation of your leadership and guidance. You have done so much for our benefit during your first two years with Lesley College and we and all succeeding classes will remember your efforts.

Seniors

Class of

Lesley
FOUR YEAR SENIORS

President . . . . . . Thelma Dewsbury
Vice President . . . . Dorcas Smith
Secretary . . . . . . Marilyn Sunter
Treasurer . . . . . . Jeanne Ropp

Although few in number, the class has sponsored activities ranging from Freshman Week to Senior Prom. When members of the Freshman Class, we numbered forty-five, but various girls seemed magically to disappear, until now there are eight loyal Lesleyans. We feel that we have become well acquainted with Lesley, and will forever sing its praises.

MARCIA BLOOM
T.T. Terminal
Hillel Club 2; Glee Club 1; Commuter's Club 1, 2.
Her beautiful blonde hair is the envy of many a gal at Lesley. Marcia has decided to stay on for two more years at our Alma Mater.

ELIZABETH GENEVIEVE BOYCE

Dramatic Club 1, 2; Oosing Club 2; Commuter's Club 1, 2; President Student Christian Club 2; Lamona Staff, Assistant Editor 2.
Little girl with a lot of energy. "Anything for Lesley" is her motto.
JANET CRAIG BROUILLETTE
H.E. Terminal
Home Economics Club 1, 2; Lantern Staff 2; Year Book Staff 2.
The sweetheart of Fort Devens. No wonder! She's filled to the brim with personality and unquestionable intelligence.

SHIRLEY RUTH CANNING
H.E. Terminal
Home Economics Club 1, 2; Security; Commuter's Club 1, 2; Glee Club 1.
Shirley is known by her efficiency and originality in the kitchen and a winning smile. Whenever any Lesley activity is suggested she is always willing to lend a hand.

JEAN MCKENZIE CHAPMAN
H.E. Terminal
Home Economics Club 1, 2; Year Book Staff 2; Glee Club 1.
A happy go lucky personality, an excellent bridge partner, and a good conversationalist all make Chappie pleasant company and a wonderful classmate.

LOUISE MARY COVENEY
T.T. Terminal
Glee Club 1, 2; Newman Club 2; Commuter's Club 1, 2.
Louise always manages to look so lovely, and her hair is the envy of us all.
MYRNA RUTH CURRIE JONES
T.T. Terminal
Glee Club 1, 2; Class Treasurer 2; Student Christian Club 2.
Myrna spends a great deal of thought on the mail situation. She loves to dance and wherever there's a giggle you'll find her. What peaches and cream complexion!

MARJORIE JEANNE CURTIS
T.T. Terminal
Glee Club 1, 2; Student Christian Club, Vice President 2.
The girl from Marblehead, who thrilled us all with her golden voice.
Sweetness is Jerry, and a gal full of pep and laughter.

THELMA ALINE DEWSBURY
T.T. Degree
Class President 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 3; Commuter's Club 1, 2, 3, 4.
Her conferences with the authorities about extra credits and conversations about naval life have kept Lesley humming.

ANNA ETHEL DURRIE
T.T. Terminal
Glee Club 3, 4; Secretary of Student Christian Club 4; Commuter's Club 4.
Such industriousness! There isn't a minute of each day that passes un-worthily used.
JANE EDITH EHRlich

MARY I. JENCKES HALL

The members of "31" have exploded the theory that the number "13" is unlucky. In fact they have found that 13 can live together in harmony with no mishaps.

Mrs. Cour<, our able housemother, and Mrs. Short started the year with a wonderful surprise present. It was a pantry equipped with all sorts of things for "pantry robbers".

A typical evening might start by "Ellie" who is our favorite hostess, saying, "I'm waiting on you all for a cup of tea". The party this evening is for Anne and Mary who joined our house at the beginning of the semester. Robin begins in a burst of conversation, "Now when 'Bugs' comes home ----" A tale of New Hampshire life is related by Dorcas amid gales of laughter.

The jitterbug lessons that Diane is giving Jean Ofene are made possible by Jane's new victrola. As the evening progresses the variety of activities increases. Lou is busy assuring Margie that she'll cut only a fraction of an inch of her hair. A discussion of one of "Sheppie's" personal library books is under way when Dottie excitedly announces her great Dane puppies. Our evenings are never complete without a song from Gerry. As the last strains of her song fade away, the girls drift off to bed.

EVERETT HALL

"45" is that big grey structure on the corner of Everett and Oxford Streets. The outside may appear foreboding but just step inside and anything can happen and quite often does.

Jeanne Ropp and Betty McNeil were elected president and vice-president respectively.

September 24th we gave a party for our Freshmen sisters.

In November, "45" again threw the house doors open and gave another party for boy friends.

But that's not all the entertainment we had. Diana Hadfield has a large repertoire of music and popular pieces. And, of course, there were the inevitable bridge games in progress. We soon branched out and learned to play Pinochle, Hearts, Rummy and Russian Bank.

Chappie managed to keep the house constantly entertained with shenanigans having as co-partners Jeanne Ropp and Sylvia Petlock.

Before Christmas the house gave a party, complete with decorations, tree, presents and refreshments.

After Christmas vacation, Sugar came back engaged — bringing her man with her. We all are as happy as she about it.

Tentative plans have been made for a tea February 14th in honor of our house mother Miss Gaffney. She, as head of the aches and pains department, makes sure that none of us in "45" go without our rain gear in stormy weather.

Come June, every single girl will hate to leave after having every moment filled with pleasant company and never one that was dull. Another house such as ours will be hard to find.
GRAY HALL

Our number is "66" although we're only eight in number. Our dormitory is a small one, with the accent on family life, rather than that of a girls' dorm. Our house mother is Mrs. Seaboyer, who has made this year a happy one for all. Her kind guidance and understanding has reached everyone of us.

In our dorm we have girls from many different places. There is Jean Briggs from Florida, who brightens up "66" with her sunny disposition. Sylvia Harris hails from Sweden — she adds the foreign influence to our dorm. There is Pat Hearn, our New Yorker, who lends the cosmopolitan atmosphere. Virginia Woodbury is the active member in school activities of the dorm, Clarice Miller our Home Economic gal, keeps us all well fed. Ruth Davis blends a jovial nature with good, hard study.

Our Friday night "get-togethers" are always eagerly awaited. Food and fun with music provided by Helen Spencer, who is our House President. Never a birthday, or any other important occasion passes without an appropriate party.

The dorm life of "66" is indeed a congenial one. There is close harmony between Mrs. Seaboyer and we girls, adding to the home like atmosphere of the dormitory, something which we both cherish and enjoy!

OXFORD HALL

September 20th 1945 rolled around accompanied by a variety of feelings among 31 girls all unknown to each other. 49 Oxford Street was our ultimate destination and we looked forward to our arrival with excitement and not a little anticipation. It didn't take much more than Mrs. Bouma's hearty welcome to make us feel at home and soon we were entering into the routine of college life.

It wasn't long before we learned that "the voice" belonged to Clem; the telephone, and most of Harvard to Polly Ayer; the grandest sense of humor to Janet Dobbs and the personality plus to Mary Rose. We soon found we had as our house president, Skippy, a happy and friendly girl, as well as a capable leader.

We could always depend upon Jane Hooker to do our worrying for us. If anyone needed news on the latest thing in shoes they just dropped in on Irene, "Pizzie." Norma was the handyman around the dorm, there was nothing she couldn't master. Anyone in need of a boast just stopped by Elly and Goody's way and was bound to come out holding her sides with laughter. Chickie was the girl who managed to sleep through her freshman year, but still came out on top.

Joan, Nancy and Jackie had a visitor on several occasions, but since there is no stipulation in the rule book about housing mice, they dispersed with him as quickly as possible.

The bellow heard on all too frequent occasions was Lee McClellan, trying to speak in low tones. Deliver us from her college cheers!
Lee Hurd was our amiable human alarm clock. She awoke all who so desired, then went off to the dining room. Stobbie followed fifteen minutes later.

Becky will forever be associated with marches in our minds. As she puts it “I’m buggy about marches, especially ‘Anchors Aweigh’.”

Alice Hyzer managed to cause great excitement upon returning from Christmas holidays with a diamond, third finger, left hand.

Rita, with the “milk of magnesia face by night and beautiful results by day” is always neat and possesses the proverbial band-box look.

Mary Sluman was our West Point girl — what an enthusiast! Jinx Hixon came in November, and filled just like the last piece of a puzzle. Milly was always the last one in bed and the first one up “and at ‘em”. And as far as society went, Joan and Jane were our society queens.
The Junior class carried through the traditional motives of the St. Valentine's dance. The Hotel Commander was the scene of the Junior Prom, where the Queen, Sugar Ordway, was chosen. Lesley match covers were distributed as favors, and door prizes were given to the lucky winners — Lou Sunter and Scott Edwards.

The May Junior Weekend commenced a Friday evening with a candlelight ceremony. It was then the Seniors who presented the Junior with their rings.

On Saturday afternoon all the Class officers, attired in pastel colors, formed a picturesque daisy chain, followed by ceremonial exercises. Sunday afternoon the Junior Class sponsored a tea to which all the students were invited. The whole class acted as hostesses. We are looking ahead to our long awaited Senior year, and we wish all the graduating Seniors the best of luck in whatever they do.

The new Sophomore Class of Lesley for the year beginning in September 1945, started off with the usual election of officers resulting as follows:

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer

KATHRYN Halloran
DOROTHY Wright
MARJORIE Small
MYRNA CURRIE

The new President took over the meeting and the Sophomore class was together, making plans for the coming year. With the cooperation of everyone, the annual Christmas formal, called the "Snow Ball", sponsored by the Sophomore class, was planned and turned out to be a huge success. We had this affair at the Hotel Lincolnshire on December 8, 1945, with approximately fifty couples in attendance. Ken Reeves orchestra played for the dancers and the patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. Trentwell M. White, Miss Clara Thurber and Dr. and Mrs. Mark V. Crockett. Printed dance program were had by all which made very nice souvenirs and we wish to thank the committees which deserve much credit for the success of the dance. Chairmen were as follows: Dance, Evelyn Boyle; Hotel, Jerry Foran; Tickets, Marjorie Small; Publicity, Eleanor Tarkey.

We hope to sponsor another dance during the second semester because of the fine results of our last one. This will be an informal here at Lesley. Also, brief plans have been made for a mother's tea, to be put on in the Spring, with the Sophomores participating in a "Spring Fashion Show" at the tea.
On the nineteenth of September the Freshman Class arrived amidst confusion. A few of the first questions asked were: "When is my roommate arriving?", "Where is my big sister?", "By the way, what is your name?", "Where's my locker?", "Is this the Commuter’s Room?"

The great day came at last. The following Monday we were off to our start in college life. Again more questions about teachers, classrooms, and schedules. Soon after, the upperclassmen gave us a "Get Acquainted" party in the barn. Dancing, games, telling of names helped us become better acquainted with Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors.

Freshman Week followed and we wondered what was in store for us. Little did we know! Dolls to be carried, yellow and green bows in our hair and many other stunts were part of this hilarious week.

Our thanks go to Dean Thurber and the rest of the faculty at Lesley for their guidance, wisdom, and help in making our Freshman year at college one of the happiest of our lives.
COMMUTER’S CLUB

The Commuter’s Club is in for a vigorous revival and a program full of fun and anticipation for future years if this year’s activities are any indication of what is to follow.

The election of officers took place in November with the following results:

President: GLORIA CARPENTER
Vice President: ELOINOR TAYLOR
Secretary-Treasurer: RUTH O’KEEFE

It was the aim of the club this year to have a more active organization than it had been, both socially and economically. The first step towards our goal was in the form of a Christmas party which was held in the barn and provided refreshments and dancing for all those attending.

The appearance of the commuter’s room has been greatly improved since the actual functioning of the club. Not only has the room taken on a neater and brighter aspect, but some new additional furniture has been obtained.

To climax the social events on the calendar for this year, a dance, night club style, was presented in March at which all members of the college were invited.

We wish to thank Dean Thurber and Dr. White for their splendid cooperation in organizing our group into a more useful and active club. We also wish to extend our gratitude to our club president Gloria Carpenter who has proven herself to be a capable leader.
DRAMATIC CLUB

President: Mary Shepard
Vice President: Jean Olfene
Secretary: Norva McGranahan
Treasurer: Geraldine Foran

Program Committee
Katherine Halloran, Chairperson
Eleanor Tarkey, Evelyn Boyle

An impressive reception and tea for the faculty and new members was the first social event on our Dramatic Club calendar. Tryouts for new members had proceeded this program.

The next thing in which the Dramatic Club took part was the Christmas party. Evelyn Boyle, Selma Chervin and Eleanor Cheyne participated in this program with appropriate skits and readings.

In February, three one-act plays were presented with the following casts: "Wrong Numbers" with Jean Olfene, Norva McGranahan and Dorothy Wright; "The Poor Working Girl" with Jerry Foran, Katherine Halloran, Eleanor Tarkey and Selma Chervin; "Surpressed Desires" with Eleanor Cheyne, Ruth MacAuley and Evelyn Boyle. Mrs. Dwight MacCormack was our able director.

We were proud to be members of the Delta Psi Omega, National Dramatic Fraternity. A three-act play "Shubert Alley" climaxed a successful year and was given at the Peabody Playhouse. Many thanks are due to our director, Mrs. MacCormick.

GLEE CLUB

President: Marjorie Mahoney
Librarian: Doris Keefe
Secretary-Treasurer: Harriet Hurst
Pianist: Lorraine Davenport

The Glee Club got under way in October with a large number of Freshmen enthusiastically joining the old timers. The melodious strains which issue from the Assembly Hall each Tuesday afternoon are ably directed by Mrs. Bouna.

Our first public appearance was at the Alumnae Tea on December 2nd. At Christmas time we sang a few of the lovely carols at the annual Vesper Service.

We have great plans for an evening Concert in March. It is hoped that we will be able to have an outside artist in addition to solos or duets from girls in our own ranks. The club members plan to wear pastel evening gowns, which will give quite a colorful touch.

This is Mrs. Bouna’s first year with us and we are indeed fortunate to have her. She has done extensive work with young people in choral work, and was at Grinnell University for a time. Her pleasant manner and sweet personality won her a place in the hearts of all the club members.

We, seniors in the club, will miss the weekly drill on attack, expression and tonal quality but we know that those who remain behind will continue the good work.
HOME ECONOMIC CLUB

The Home Economic Club began its second successful year with the election of the following officers:

President: Betty McNeil
Vice President: Doris Bouma
Secretary: Shirley Canning
Treasurer: Clarice Miller

In October the club attended the State Association of Home Economic Clubs at Swampscott. Doris Bouma was elected as representative on the advisory board.

At the December meeting Janet Brouillette showed us various lovely and clever ways of wrapping Christmas packages. This was a helpful and most interesting lecture and demonstration. The club also sponsored and participated in a joint Christmas party. As would be expected our club had full charge of the refreshments and they were a great success.

In February the club sponsored a spaghetti dinner which was the first of its kind at Lesley and judging from the crowds that attended it was thoroughly enjoyed. We also sponsored a food sale and the girls came in and had coffee or tea and bought the various cakes, cookies, and other pastry that the Home Economic students had made.

In March, the State Association held its Spring meeting at Regis College, to which all girls were invited. Plans were made for the year.

THE LANTERN

The Lantern, one of the Lesley's publications has grown considerably in its second year of revival, into a printed newspaper with substantial advertising. The Lantern Staff has grown to include business staff, an advertising staff, and a circulation staff. The staff has acquired a newspaper room in which it works busily with its own typewriters.

The members of the staff are as follows:

Editor-in-Chief
Diane Yost

Assistant Editors
Margaret Merrill
Dorcas Smith

THE OUTING CLUB

President: Doris Bouma
Vice President: Gloria Carpenter
Secretary: Norma Perkins
Treasurer: Jean PicKham
Program Chairman: Fay Hurley

To be sure everyone has heard of the Lesley Outing Club, newly formed this year, but are the majority acquainted with its objectives and activities?

Relaxation in and out of doors is the main purpose of this club but may it also be added that an emphasis on the promotion of good fellowship is another of the aims.

The mind, as well as the body, needs the relaxation offered by this type of club such as: skating, swimming, toboganning, square dancing, hiking, bowling and in general sports of every description.

One of the social functions given this year was a square dance, attended by the members of several other Inter-Collegiate Outing Clubs as well as our own.

The dance and the “fireside sing,” at intermission, has long been considered lasting memories and the square dance as a whole, a definite success. A hayride is being contemplated with great enthusiasm.

Lesley girls are known for the ability to mix well and the genuine friendliness and enjoyment with which they enter these different and well remembered recreational events. Many a weekend has been “saved” by the Outing Club from complete obliteration, therefore we feel that this and the many enjoyable opportunities offered constitute a valuable asset to our college.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was launched on its second successful year by the following members elected from the student body:

President: Diane Yost
Vice President: Dorothy Wright
Secretary: Margaret Merrill
Treasurer: Georgia Christopoulos

Virginia Woodbury from “66”
Joan Leeming from “49”
Marjorie Mahoney
Mary Hale
Joan Spaulding
from Commuters

This year the Student Council has been very active on the college campus. The Council opened Lesley’s social season by sponsoring the first dance, which was a great success. Through them the children from the Peabody Settlement House were entertained at Christmas time, also the boxes were sent to the servicemen in the Brighton Marine Hospital. Lesley College had its first reading day this year which were obtained through the efforts of the Student Council.

The Student Council in order to make itself a more active group, representing the whole college, has inaugurated a system whereby the Council runs the Assembly every Thursday and at this time any one in the Student body may present a problem for discussion before the Student body. We are in hopes that this will bring the council in closer contact with the girls they are representing, so they will be able to accomplish more for them.
STUDENT CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT

The results of the election of officers held at one of the business meetings were as follows:

President, Betty Boyce
Vice President, Marjorie Curtis
Secretary, Ethel Durrie
Treasurer, Doris Kaffe
Program Committee Chairman, Virginia Horton

In November 1945 the Student Christian Movement at Lesley College became an active organization after an inspiring talk given by Miss Betty Johns the New England representative of the National Student Christian Movement.

After several business meeting we planned a contemporary program which was to include discussions on topics of interest to the group, establishing of a S.C.M. library, attending New England conventions and obtaining a variety of good speakers.

The club President, Miss Betty Boyce took part in a candle light service at Christmas time by reading a selection from the Bible.

Mrs. Bouma, who is new to Lesley this year is the Faculty Adviser of the club. She has come to be loved by every girl in the college because of her friendly smile and willingness to help out anyone she can. She has worked with young people's groups before and therefore is very capable in her position as adviser.

B'NAI BRITH HILLEL FOUNDATION OF LESLEY COLLEGE

President, Cecile Levine
Vice President, Evelyn Blondes
Secretary, Marcia Bloom
Treasurer, Claire Goldberg

The Hillel Foundation at Lesley College is not quite a year old. During this short period of its existence, it has developed a program which has brought before the student body many outstanding discussion groups. These discussion groups led by Dr. Judah Shapiro, help meet the complex issues of contemporary Jewish life. Every student in the college is asked to attend these challenging meetings which are designed to emphasize the expression of the student.

There are many joint meetings held with Harvard, M.I.T. and Radcliffe. At these joint sessions, outstanding thinkers and interpreters of Jewish life are presented to the students. All social affairs, too, find that Lesley joins all the other colleges of Boston.

Hillel also joins the Christian Club and Newman Club in programs. Students should feel free to attend these meetings at any time and offer any suggestions to the club.
NEWMAN CLUB

Our Newman Club was founded in September of 1945, and at the first meeting the officers were elected and the club was underway. The officers are as follows:

President: Betty McNeil
Vice President: Geraldine Foran
Secretary: Marsjorie Small
Treasurer: Claire Sullivan

This organization is a religious club for the Catholic students of the college. Our chaplain is the Reverend Father Haynes, who will lecture at some of our meetings, and, in general, advise the club. Father Haynes has attended one of the meetings to meet the members and briefly tell of the usual functions.

We were first represented at a candle-light service here at Lesley, held in the assembly hall on December 8, 1945. Each religious club participated with a short reading. The Newman Club was represented by Jerry Foran, who read a short passage from the Bible.

Next in our introduction of the club, M.I.T. Newman Club extended to our President an invitation to one of their monthly dances held at St. Steven's Center house in Boston. Their invitation was for Saturday night, February 8, 1946. Not all of our members were able to attend, but the evening was a great success. In the future we plan to have other Newman Clubs at Lesley for socials and function along with them.

We, the class of 1946, of Lesley College, of the city of Cambridge, county of Middlesex, and state of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament in manner and form following:

1st. We do, as a class, bestow upon the faculty our full appreciation and sincere thanks for the help they have given us during our years at Lesley.
2nd. We do, the teacher training dept., bestow upon Miss O'Connor, our promise that we will put to use all that she has taught us, and hope she will come to visit us during her leisure time.
3rd. We do, the home economic dept., bestow upon Miss Rockwood and Mrs. Short, our promise that we will always serve the basic seven unbaked!
4th. We, Myrna Currie and Jerry Curtis, do will and bequeath to each other gobs of love.
5th. I, Thelma Dewsbury, do will and bequeath to next year's Senior Class president all Sophomore Terminals.
6th. I, Betty Boyce, do will and bequeath to Rita Hyman my Lesley College spirit.
7th. I, Janet Brouillette, do will and bequeath to Lesley College more of that "Ayer" found in Fort Devens.
8th. I, Shirley Canning, do will and bequeath to a freshman Home Ec'er my "men-y" problems at the Y.M.C.A.
9th. I, Sylvia Ordway, do will and bequeath to Tille McCool my sweet and quiet manner.
10th. I, Jeanne Ropp, do will and bequeath to "45" an elevator, so in the future no one else will trip up the stairs.
11th. I, Sylvia Petlock, do will and bequeath to Cissy Levine, my motto that “two is better than one.”

12th. I, Marjorie Mahoney, do will and bequeath to Melba Kyriacos my tradition of getting to class five minutes late.

13th. I, Betty McNeil, do will and bequeath to Mary Sluman three inches of my height so that she can better meet the quantity of six feet.

14th. I, Jean Chapman, do will and bequeath to Joan Saltzberg an alarm clock so she will be able to get up mornings when she is student teaching.

15th. I, Norva McGranahan, do will and bequeath to Eleanor Cheyne the job of getting ads for their 1949 Lesleyan.

16th. I, Dorcas Smith, Lou Santer, and Margie Merrill, do will and bequeath to Mrs. C. Court a “Sunday afternoon at 4:30” conference.

17th. I, Dottie Wright, do will and bequeath to all future year book editors lots of free time, and willing workers — you’ll need them! — also Miss Wilson without whom this book would never have been completed.

18th. I, Dottie Vlamos, do will and bequeath to Gloria Hor, my skating ability, that she, too, can learn by falling.

20th. I, Helen Mowbray, do will and bequeath to all future Wellesley commuters my seat on the train.

21st. I, Louise Covenev, do will and bequeath to Marilyn Davidson my beautiful suits and my friendly smile.

22nd. I, Jane Erlich, do will and bequeath to Gloria Horsman my skating ability, that she, too, can learn by falling.

23rd. I, Ethel Darrie, do will and bequeath to the Lesley College dining room my pastries and etc. from my exclusive bakery shop.

24th. I, Bernice Robinson, do will and bequeath to Diane Hadfield a helping hand when the mailman comes.

25th. I, Priscilla Pearson, do will and bequeath to Doris Keefe my parking space in front of Lesley.

26th. I, Lois Loud, do will and bequeath to the clothing class my basic dress form which I know I’ll never completely understand.

27th. I, Claire Sullivan do will and bequeath to the Railroad my share of commuter’s tickets for the past two years.

28th. I, Mildred Gisiger, do will and bequeath to Wright and Ditson a contract for a smaller gym suit.

29th. I, Lois Loud, do will and bequeath to Miss Sharples a package of gum, so she, too, can join in the fun.

30th. We, as a class, do will and bequeath to the Juniors their promotion to Seniors and hope that their success is tops!

In witness to the above testimony, I do hereby in the name of The Class of 1946, declare this to be a Salute to our Alma Mater.

Sole Testatrix,
SYLVIA PETLOCK.

June 9, 1946 — graduation — we have gathered our knowledge during our college years and we now ready to put it to use — Time Marches on — ’47, ’48, ’49, and etc. — thus comes June 9th, 1971 — our silver anniversary. On this day I pause in my trivial thoughts to reminisce my college days. Lesley has changed a great deal in the past generation. Peter White, son of Dr. Trentwell Mason White, has recently been inaugurated as president, and also the administration was seriously considering obtaining Perkins and Conant Halls from Harvard University as Lesley dorms.

I took from my book case the ’46 Lesleyan and went through it again, as I had done so many times before. I had learned a great deal about my former classmates through the Lesley publication of The Lantern.

Betty Boyd as one of the leading figures in the World Interfaith program is now in Norway with her husband. They have just returned from an important conference in Paris where Betty had an opportunity to visit with her daughter who is studying fashions in a university there. Janet Brouillette, wife of Senator William Grimes of Florida, had as her house guest recently Jean Chapman, who has just returned from China where she is teaching. I heard Louise Covenev had recently been voted “best dressed” teacher in the New York City school system.

I turned the page and noticed Jerry Curtis, remembering then that she had just announced the engagement of her daughter to Myrna Currie’s son. Shirley Canning was still helping Lois Loud finish her basic dress form. They have opened a dress shop in Boston — very exclusive! Thelma Dewbury and Dane are taking a trip around the world, so he can show her how he was while she waited for him in Cambridge. Ethel Darrie and Mildred Gisiger have their own kindergartens in Boston. Also the Jane Erlich’s had purchased a new car, a Buick, because she had such vivid memories of her first one.

Skimming over the pages again I halted at the picture of Margie Mahoney. I saw her the other day with her son Junior. Marg told me all about her new home which she decorated and designed herself.
Betty McNeil was chosen by Vogue Magazine to visit Paris and bring back the latest fashions. Buck went along for the ride, and is filling his spare moments teaching engineering at the Sorbonne. Margie Merrill and her husband, Paul, are both teaching at the University of Maine. Margie’s days were empty since her children had left for college so to occupy her leisure time she has been given charge of the Nursery on the Maine campus. Mrs. Norva McGranahan Blank, wife of the big candy manufacturer has generously supplied the sweets for the children’s school party again this year. Mrs. Blank has two little grandchildren, red headed, in the first grade of the school.

Helen Mowbray has been put in charge of the Page Memorial at Wellesley and has as one of her pupils Peter White, Jr. Further on, I paused at Sugar Ordway’s picture and remembered the letter I had received from her recently telling me that she and Bob liked Florida so much on their honeymoon that they decided to stay. Priscilla Pearson, had been so disgusted with the parking situation at Lesley that she decided to buy from Harvard the tennis courts, and she now has a successful enterprise — a parking lot across the street from her alma mater.

Then I came upon the picture of myself — funny how people change in a generation, well, my husband thinks I’m still beautiful (O.K., girls, I can dream, can’t I). Bernie Robinson is living in Hollywood as governess to the family of Lew Ayres. Jeanne Ropp recently announced the engagement of her daughter, who is attending Lesley College. Dorcas Smith and Lou Sunter and their husbands Van and Lyle, are spending this week in Cambridge, Mass., celebrating their 25th anniversary.

Claire Sullivan tiring of so many years commuting on the train between Boston and Methuen, bought a car. Dottie Wright, now Mrs. Dean Weber has just announced the engagement of their daughter Judy. Judy has just graduated from Lesley where she edited the Yearbook. Crazy like her mother! Dottie Vlamos and her husband are coaching the Skating Vanities.

I closed the Lesleyan and looked up at the calendar — June 9, 1946 — good luck and happiness, classmates, as you go “on to the heights ahead.”

Sylvia Petlock.

Many business managers and editors of year books in the school and college field have written us in appreciation of our cooperation and helpful sugges-
