Lesley University
DigitalCommons@Lesley

Lesley Newspaper Archive

Winter 2-28-1957

The Lantern (February 28, 1957)

Lesley College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.lesley.edu/newspaper_archive

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.lesley.edu/newspaper_archive/24

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections and Archives at DigitalCommons@Lesley. It has been accepted for inclusion in Lesley Newspaper Archive by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Lesley. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@lesley.edu.
SAKMAN, Stanford, Connecticut.

Grey, Marie of-~

Kelleher, Mary Salipante, Anne Connecticut.

Grey, Marie and any of its officers, lesbians, March 15-Classes elect rest of Executive Board candidates. Friday evening, January 31. They	Monthly meetings of the Student Council, will go to the Building Fund Committee. Donations may be obtained from any member of the Glee Club and any of its officers who are Edythe Foye, President; Ann Cirilo, Manager; Nancy Rosenthal, Secretary; Rosemary Silva, Treasurer; Carol Frothingham, Librarian; Nancy Brenner, Assistant Librarian and Joan Turley, Publicity Chairman. Georgia Louras, Chairman of the Building Fund will also have tickets available for anyone desiring to attend. Free Ticket

"A ticket for your thoughts!" Win a free ticket to the Junior Prom by submitting a name for it. The Prom will be held on May 18 in the Empire Room of the Hotel Vendome. The music and entertainment will be supplied by the orchestras of Sunny Elise. Year entries may be submitted by placing them in entry boxes on the second and third floors of the Main Building. Don your "thinking caps" and enter soon. The contest ends on March 16.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS
February 28—Assembly, Speeches of Executive Board candidates.
March 1—Final election for Executive Board.
March 4—Elections of class presidents and S.G.C. class representatives.
March 15—Classes elect rest of officers.
March 16—Building Fund Dance.
March 18-22—Club elections.
March 22-23—W.P.I. meeting in New York.

S.G.C. ANNOUNCES PRESIDENT

MAURINE GREEN BECOMES S.G.C. PRESIDENT

In previous years there has always been a campaign for President of Student Government Council. But this year there will be none, since all class girls in the junior class who were qualified to run felt that there was one girl, Maurine Green, who was far and away the standing candidate. Therefore on February 11, the Student Government Council of Lesley College unanimously voted Maurine Green as their new S.G.C. President. It is almost impossible to walk through Lesley's corridors and not encounter the cheerful face of Maurine Green. She has her finger in so many pies that it is a wonder how she fits these extra-curricular activities into her Lesley program. Some of her positions include: Treasurer of the Junior Class, Freshman Student Body President, and member of the Students' Handbook committee. She is also a member of the Election Committee, and through her efforts she has gained a great deal of experience in many activities here at Lesley. As President of the Student Government Council, Maurine is holding a very responsible position, and during the past three years at Lesley she has proved herself capable of this honor.

When interviewed by a LANTERN reporter, Maurine Green wished to say the following to the student body of Lesley College.

"Not only has a great honor been bestowed upon me, but a tremendous responsibility, that of being your next Student Government Council President. My desire is to see you, the members of the Lesley family. During my term of office I wish to establish our Student Government Council with a new "forward look."

"Lesley is in the process of expanding and my aim is to look ahead and expand the quality of our council members chosen to carry out your desires. How can this be attained? By electing the right nominees who will be campaigning for the Executive Committee. In addition, all students who have the necessary qualifications and a desire to work for Student Government should submit their names for a cabinet position. Although the positions are limited, there will be a need for many sub committees throughout the following college year. Keep in mind that this is every student's government and it will be your support that will determine how competent the Student Government Council will be.

"We can justly be proud of our school with its fine tradition. We have gained prominence in our field of endeavor. Lesley truly has a 'forward look.' May we, the Student Government Council, continue its ever-onward tradition."

MISS STAINS IN SONGS

Glee Club Holds Concert
With Worcester Poly-technical Institute

Two Glee Club concerts, sponsored by the Building Fund Committee, will be held, with Worcester Poly-technical Institute. The first one will be held at Livingston Stebbins Gymnasium on Saturday, March 13, at 8 p.m. The second concert will be at Worcester on March 25.

Lesley's Glee Club of fifty voices and the Madrigal Singers will present the program with Worcester's Glee Club of New York and a novelty group called "The Technichords."

The two choruses will combine for selections from "My Fair Lady," Lesley's Madrigal group will present a group of folk songs, among them being Tango Miranda, Madge Russell and Carol Wahlin will be soprano soloists in "Hymn of the Master." "Jehovah The Lord." The Technichords, a male double quartet, will bring...
EVENTS TO SEE
GOOD AS GOLD
At the Shubert Theatre, which opened February 16 for a two week engagement. This is John Patrick's first new comedy since "The Teahouse of the August Moon." This is a story about an innocent genius who discovers how to turn gold into dirt that will produce astonishing vegetables.

JANUS
At the Shubert Theatre for two weeks, this successful comedy was written by Carolyn Green and stars Joan Bennett, Donald Cook, and Romney Brent. The story is about a talented housewife who juggles a happy home and an extra-marital romance with an attractive professor. This amusing comedy will be in Boston until March 12.

THE SIN OF PAT MULDOON
At the Colonial Theatre. It started its two week engagement February 25. It will be presented by Roger L Stevens and Richard Adler, and stars James Barton.

METROPOLITAN OPERA OF NEW YORK
At the Boston Opera House starting Monday April 10, and continuing through Sunday, April 14.

MEN
If you smile at him, he thinks you're flirting.
If you don't smile, he thinks you're an old maid.
If you let him kiss you, he wishes you were more reserved.
If you quip, he'll cast consolation elsewhere.
If you flatter him, he thinks you are an easy woman.
If you let him make love to you, he thinks you're cheap.
If you don't, he'll go with a girl who really loves him.
If you don't, he'll go with other fellows, but he thinks you're frigid.
If you don't, he thinks no man will have you.
"God bless them; they don't know what they want." —Anonymous

LESLEY-ELLIS NEWS
Lesley Ellis has been making great strides in French under the supervision of Miss Evelyn Singer. The children have been listening to records and learning French. They are now in the process of making note books showing pictures of the home and the rooms and objects of the house. Next week the children will be given from the "Petits Livres D'Or Series" which is similar to our Little Golden Books.

A French Assembly is now in the planning stages. The exact date has not yet been announced.

LESLEY'S HONORARY SOCIETY
Theta Alpha Theta, Lesley's honorary scholarship society, is in the process of writing a constitution, applying for membership in a national scholarship organization and considering the founding of an alumnas chapter.

The members of Theta Alpha Theta are Joan Weinstein, President; Nancy Rosenthal, Vice-President; Faith Ginsburg, Secretary-Treasurer; Carolyn Turnell, Barbara Bradley, Linda Weissberg, Marie Nelson and Barbara Buffett. Its advisors are Dr. Oliver, Dr. Mackay, Dr. Crockett and Mr. Mory.

This society takes the top girls from the Junior and Senior classes. The membership is not limited by any set number. Members of the Junior class are asked in at Spring Convocation, and members of the Senior class at Fall Convocation. All girls in both classes meeting the requirements for membership in Theta Alpha Theta, are asked to accept the benefits of membership.

Congratulations are in store for those students who made the Senior and Junior Basketball Varsity here at Lesley. They are as follows:
Senior Varsity

Junior Varsity
Maureen Ingoldsby, Brenda Faby, Joyce Macnab, Mary Lou White, Christine Hawley, Diane Sharp, Marcia Juliano, and Elizabeth Zuehl.

Manager—Gladyce Acosta.

Northeast Aluminum, Inc.
— Aluminum Extrusions
65 Manchester Street
Lawrence, Mass.

Ed. Chin's Laundry
COMPLETE LAUNDRY SERVICE
Reliably Wash, Press, and Box
Closed Saturday and Holidays
1642 MASS. AVE. [at Langdon St.]

Cleaning by:
MONACO
RIT-EWAY DRY CLEANERS, INC.
"Let us show you the difference"
Same day dry cleaning service
Complete Laundry Service
Seamstress or Tailor on Premises

STUDENT ATTENDS INAUGURAL BALL
Each person, sometime during his lifetime, has an experience which he will never forget. I recently had such an experience when I was invited to the second Inauguration of President Eisenhower in Washington on January 21, 1957.

My father, as Chairman of the Republican State Committee in Maine and a member of the Republican National Committee, had to be in Washington for the election of the new National Republican Chairman.

We arrived in Washington at 9:30 on Saturday morning. Saturday afternoon my mother and I attended a reception for official Distinguished Ladies attending the Inauguration. This was held at the Pan American Union. To give an idea of the number of people attending, I will add that there were two thousand invitations issued. In the receiving line I met Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. Knowland, Mrs. Leonard Hall, and the wives of the cabinet members. I might add that I accidentally broke the teacup of Queen Elizabeth's first cousin, Mrs. Bowes.

At five-thirty we met the rest of the Maine delegation at the Shoreham Hotel and went on to a reception for the Republican National Committee. Here we were greeted by Leonard Hall, the immediate past chairman, and Meade Abbott, the new chairman. Following dinner at the Palladium Room at the Shoreham Hotel we went across to the White House for an aster-star-studded Hollywood Festival at the Calvary Church. I met Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. Bowes, David Rockefeller, and Barbara Walters.

FLORIDA CO-OP OPENS NEW WEBSITE
Florists Telegraph Delivery Association
Kupersmith—Florist
Members of Florists Telegraph Delivery Association
17 BRATTLE ST., HARVARD SQUARE
CAMBRIDGE 38, MASS.
Telephone Kirkland 7-5442
Toll-Free: 1-800-273-FLOR

Ed. Chin's Laundry
COMPLETE LAUNDRY SERVICE
Reliably Wash, Press, and Box
Closed Saturday and Holidays
1642 MASS. AVE. [at Langdon St.]

LESLEY COLLEGE LANTERN
February 28, 1957

PAGE 4
ATTENTION, STUDENTS

All Lesley students that are interested become members of the Student Government Council, please hand your names to either Majorie Brenner of Barnard College. By July 5, 1957, please make your suggestions for working together towards a common goal. Learning by mistakes we may have made, the future is yours. We have learned the importance of the new building, not easy to complete. Yet as long as the building has been, the future is over and nothing can stop us now.

As for the construction of the new buildings, we hope it will be completed. We have made a great deal of progress in the past, and there should be smoother going from now on. We therefore will keep working until the last date is due to move in. We hope you will join us in this new Lesley.

Massachusetts Needs 10,000 Teachers

Massachusetts isn't producing enough public school teachers to meet the present demands. The state must start recruiting 10,000 new teachers a year to meet growing enrollment. Thus the state's teacher training schools—public and private—don't fill more than a fraction of that quota.

The shortage has been greatest in the elementary schools, where the post-war baby boom is being felt first. T is is much more difficult to find personnel with the specialized training needed for elementary teaching that is to obtain qualified high school instructors.

Science teachers are especially needed. The high schools are finding this a much greater problem than the elementary schools. But people with training in physics and chemistry can find higher paying jobs in industry.

Another problem is that many teachers training now for their profession never actually teach. A 1965 survey showed that out of 2,175 public high schools in the nation, only 1,762 of them did teach. In addition to the teachers lost through retirement or death each year, there are hundreds who failed to pass their state examinations. These teachers are facing serious problems, because they find it too difficult to pass teachers can't afford to lose their jobs. They also can't afford to pay their teachers as well as the big cities can.

Another problem is that many new teachers training now for their profession never actually teach. A 1965 survey showed that out of 2,175 public high schools in the nation, only 1,762 of them did teach. In addition to the teachers lost through retirement or death each year, there are hundreds who failed to pass their state examinations. These teachers are facing serious problems, because they find it too difficult to pass teachers can't afford to lose their jobs. They also can't afford to pay their teachers as well as the big cities can.

Another problem is that many new teachers training now for their profession never actually teach. A 1965 survey showed that out of 2,175 public high schools in the nation, only 1,762 of them did teach. In addition to the teachers lost through retirement or death each year, there are hundreds who failed to pass their state examinations. These teachers are facing serious problems, because they find it too difficult to pass teachers can't afford to lose their jobs. They also can't afford to pay their teachers as well as the big cities can.

Another problem is that many new teachers training now for their profession never actually teach. A 1965 survey showed that out of 2,175 public high schools in the nation, only 1,762 of them did teach. In addition to the teachers lost through retirement or death each year, there are hundreds who failed to pass their state examinations. These teachers are facing serious problems, because they find it too difficult to pass teachers can't afford to lose their jobs. They also can't afford to pay their teachers as well as the big cities can.
THE LANTERN

February 28, 1957

LESLEY COLLEGE LANTERN

Official newspaper of Lesley college, published fortnightly during the college year, exclusive of vacations, by the students of Lesley College, Dedham, Mass. Printed by the Birkdale Press, 8 Walden Street, Cambridge, Mass. Tel. EL 4-0500. Subscription rate by mail: $2.00 a year, single copy: 10 cents.

The LANTERN Staff

Editor-in-chief
Edith Michaud

Associated Editors
Barbara Tarkett
Katherine Schatz

Associate Editors
Marion Zashin
Jane Adelberg

Copy Editors
Linda Prager

Contributors
Gladya Acosta
Sheila Berger
Suzan Finn
Bacharach
Robert Boghosian

Art Director
Toby Hoffer-Bloch

Copy Editor
Jane Adelberg

Copy Editors
Bandi Borz
Alice Coburn

Faculty Advisor, Dr. LESLIE N. OLIVER

Principal advertisers

LESLEY COLLEGE CAMPUS

Your Choice

Would you like to be a member of a co-educational college? Can you visualize freedom to choose what lectures you attend, which you eschew? Are Old Foggy-noggin's lectures in Anglo-Saxon strong and weak verbs just nowhere? Then stay away. Are Young Bright's lectures on Little culture just too much? Then 'canard us, you haven't had, be, is, do' in the lecture room. You do have such free- dom of choice if you are a member of either Girton or Newnham; a member of two women's colleges in Cambridge Universi- ty. In theory at least, you need never attend a lecture during your entire two years of residence to follow a college course. Indeed, instead of you, the lectures are designed for you. If you indicate your desire to "read" for a certain trip, say Historical, then the English Department will give the examination for the B.A. (Honors) degree in the University, so called because in earlier times a scholar would sit on a three-legged stool (tripus) and argue humorously with the candidate. Your choice having been made, your college will assign you to a tutor in that general subject. With her (or, perhaps, him) you will meet for about an hour, usually once each week during the term to discuss your progress in your reading. Perhaps you will have prepared a short paper on a subject of your own choosing, and the tutor will examine this paper critically. She may suggest certain lectures you should attend, for you think you may find the subject valuable, but she will not insist. She may suggest a certain course of lectures, but, again, she will not insist. Your reading, as well as your attendance or non-attendance at lectures, is a matter of your own choosing. Sometimes during the term, your tutor will want to talk about the "tripus" you will do in the examination.

Take Note

A large group of girls in a room...E.K.

Accession... small fees.

The Compus Club's money maker on Tuesday afternoon, March 6, is the big, beautiful, colorful, expensive, tempting, show that will feature clothes from one of Cambridge's leading style centers, will be sent to needy children to summer camps. Lenore Berman is the chairperson of this affair with Mary Lou White and Phyllis Borkan acting as assistants. Members of the Compus Club will act as models, and we all are looking forward to seeing you there. We promise you an enjoyable time.

Opportunities To Study Abroad

The Editor-in-Chief of the LANTERN has received many letters from the International Office regarding study abroad. Recent letters offer opportunities to study in the following countries: Italy, England, France, Switzerland, and The Netherlands. If any Lesley students are interested in these opportunities and wish to receive further information please write to the International Office of Lesley College. If you are interested, please write to the Editor-in-Chief of the LANTERN.

To the Editor:

Lesley students who are interested in study abroad opportunities should contact the International Office. The LANTERN has received many letters regarding study abroad opportunities in countries such as Italy, England, France, Switzerland, and The Netherlands. If you are interested, please write to the Editor-in-Chief of the LANTERN.

Your Choice

Would you like to be a member of a co-educational college? Can you visualize freedom to choose what lectures you attend, which you eschew? Are Old Foggy-noggin's lectures in Anglo-Saxon strong and weak verbs just nowhere? Then stay away. Are Young Bright's lectures on Little culture just too much? Then 'canard us, you haven't had, be, is, do' in the lecture room. You do have such freedom of choice if you are a member of either Girton or Newnham; a member of two women's colleges in Cambridge University. In theory at least, you need never attend a lecture during your entire two years of residence to follow a college course. Indeed, instead of you, the lectures are designed for you. If you indicate your desire to "read" for a certain trip, say Historical, then the English Department will give the examination for the B.A. (Honors) degree in the University, so called because in earlier times a scholar would sit on a three-legged stool (tripus) and argue humorously with the candidate. Your choice having been made, your college will assign you to a tutor in that general subject. With her (or, perhaps, him) you will meet for about an hour, usually once each week during the term to discuss your progress in your reading. Perhaps you will have prepared a short paper on a subject of your own choosing, and the tutor will examine this paper critically. She may suggest certain lectures you should attend, for you think you may find the subject valuable, but she will not insist. She may suggest a certain course of lectures, but, again, she will not insist. Your reading, as well as your attendance or non-attendance at lectures, is a matter of your own choosing. Sometimes during the term, your tutor will want to talk about the "tripus" you will do in the examination.

Take Note

A large group of girls in a room...E.K.

Accession... small fees.

The Compus Club's money maker on Tuesday afternoon, March 6, is the big, beautiful, colorful, expensive, tempting, show that will feature clothes from one of Cambridge's leading style centers, will be sent to needy children to summer camps. Lenore Berman is the chairperson of this affair with Mary Lou White and Phyllis Borkan acting as assistants. Members of the Compus Club will act as models, and we all are looking forward to seeing you there. We promise you an enjoyable time.

Opportunities To Study Abroad

The Editor-in-Chief of the LANTERN has received many letters from the International Office regarding study abroad. Recent letters offer opportunities to study in the following countries: Italy, England, France, Switzerland, and The Netherlands. If any Lesley students are interested in these opportunities and wish to receive further information please write to the International Office of Lesley College. If you are interested, please write to the Editor-in-Chief of the LANTERN.

To the Editor:

Lesley students who are interested in study abroad opportunities should contact the International Office. The LANTERN has received many letters regarding study abroad opportunities in countries such as Italy, England, France, Switzerland, and The Netherlands. If you are interested, please write to the Editor-in-Chief of the LANTERN.

Your Choice

Would you like to be a member of a co-educational college? Can you visualize freedom to choose what lectures you attend, which you eschew? Are Old Foggy-noggin's lectures in Anglo-Saxon strong and weak verbs just nowhere? Then stay away. Are Young Bright's lectures on Little culture just too much? Then 'canard us, you haven't had, be, is, do' in the lecture room. You do have such freedom of choice if you are a member of either Girton or Newnham; a member of two women's colleges in Cambridge University. In theory at least, you need never attend a lecture during your entire two years of residence to follow a college course. Indeed, instead of you, the lectures are designed for you. If you indicate your desire to "read" for a certain trip, say Historical, then the English Department will give the examination for the B.A. (Honors) degree in the University, so called because in earlier times a scholar would sit on a three-legged stool (tripus) and argue humorously with the candidate. Your choice having been made, your college will assign you to a tutor in that general subject. With her (or, perhaps, him) you will meet for about an hour, usually once each week during the term to discuss your progress in your reading. Perhaps you will have prepared a short paper on a subject of your own choosing, and the tutor will examine this paper critically. She may suggest certain lectures you should attend, for you think you may find the subject valuable, but she will not insist. She may suggest a certain course of lectures, but, again, she will not insist. Your reading, as well as your attendance or non-attendance at lectures, is a matter of your own choosing. Sometimes during the term, your tutor will want to talk about the "tripus" you will do in the examination.

Take Note

A large group of girls in a room...E.K.

Accession... small fees.

The Compus Club's money maker on Tuesday afternoon, March 6, is the big, beautiful, colorful, expensive, tempting, show that will feature clothes from one of Cambridge's leading style centers, will be sent to needy children to summer camps. Lenore Berman is the chairperson of this affair with Mary Lou White and Phyllis Borkan acting as assistants. Members of the Compus Club will act as models, and we all are looking forward to seeing you there. We promise you an enjoyable time.

Opportunities To Study Abroad

The Editor-in-Chief of the LANTERN has received many letters from the International Office regarding study abroad. Recent letters offer opportunities to study in the following countries: Italy, England, France, Switzerland, and The Netherlands. If any Lesley students are interested in these opportunities and wish to receive further information please write to the International Office of Lesley College. If you are interested, please write to the Editor-in-Chief of the LANTERN.