Leslyan

1909

1959

Foreword..

Out of tradition and vision came Lesley's growth. This, the 1959 Lesleyan, is an expression of her fifty years of existence. Through the use of candid photographs and original drawings we have endeavored to capture the warmth and friendliness of Lesley's years—The Spirit of Lesley. The motto on Lesley's coat of arms is "I had perished had I not persisted." Truly, Lesley has constantly persisted. Proudly she proclaims progress and improvement in both academic and social fields.

Her greatest asset, however, is her constantly growing student body. She offers one of the greatest privileges in life, the opportunity to undertake and complete a labor together. Here friendships are long lasting; minds are enriched by the guidance of a devoted and inspired Faculty.

We, the Class of 1959, offer the Lesleyan with the hope that it will serve to bind ever more firmly our ties to Lesley which we created through purpose, labor, and friendship.

Miss Dorothy Sharples

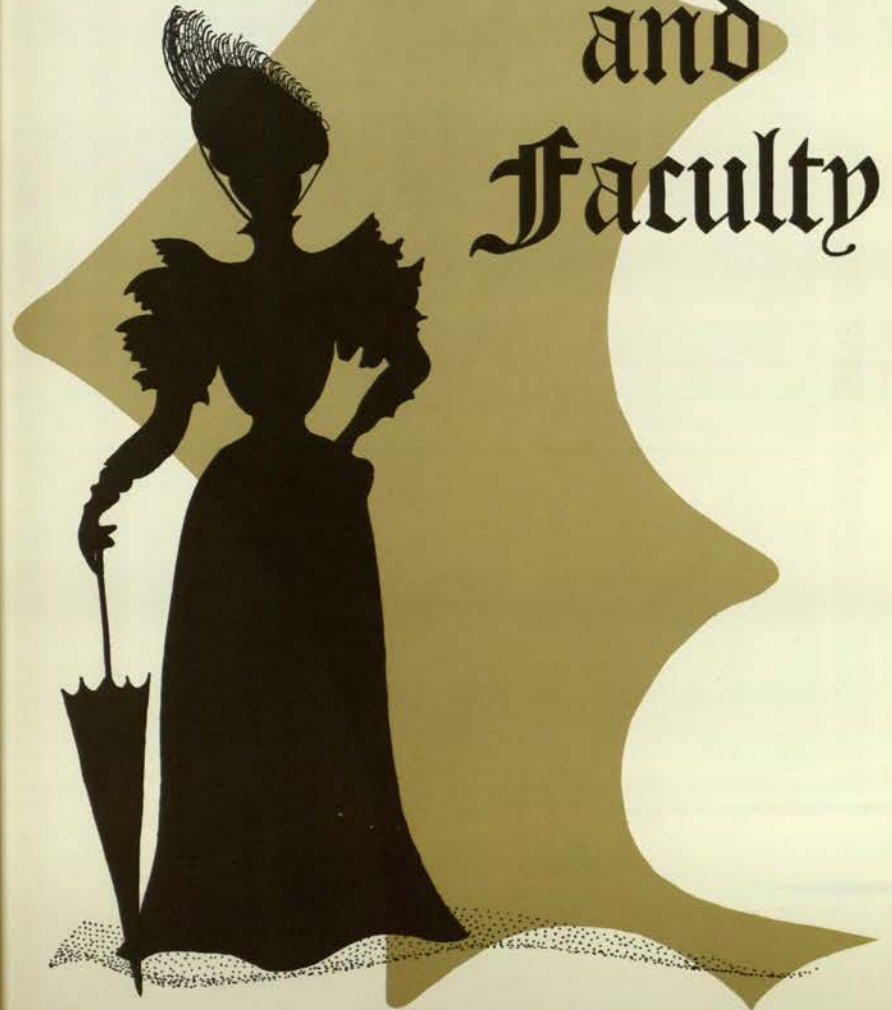

We dedicate the 1959 Lesleyan with great pleasure to Miss Dorothy Sharples. From the beginning we were aware of your sincere interest in our welfare and progress. In class we felt your enthusiasm and we were inspired by it. We shall not forget the extra things you have done for us. We remember the times when, no matter what the hour or circumstance, you gave us gladly the help and encouragement we needed. For all these things we are grateful to you. Your influence will be with us throughout our lives.

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

Senior Investiture has long been a tradition at Lesley. This year ninety members of the class of 1959, slightly self-conscious in their new dignity were capped and gowned by the faculty. Joyce Leonard, President of the Student Government Association, was invested by President White. The officers of the Senior Class were capped and gowned by Dean Thurber and their class advisor, Miss Sharples. The entire class then formed a line, were invested by the faculty, and with great pride joined the Academic Procession to the Semicentennial Convocation.

The Senior Investiture was followed by the Semicentennial Convocation. At this Convocation Mrs. Alex Savolainen received the first honorary degree ever to be presented to a Lesley Alumna. She was the first girl ever to enroll at Lesley, the first graduate to secure a teaching position and first to become a life member of the Lesley Alumnae Association. Inspired by Mrs. Savolainen's splendid example, the class of 1959 now have the opportunity to make their contribution to one of the nation's finest professions—teaching.

DEDICATION OF TRENTWELL MASON WHITE HALL

The new dormitory was named by the trustees in honor of Trentwell Mason White, First President of Lesley College, in recognition of Dr. White's devotion and inspiring leadership. The dormitory was dedicated on May 3, 1958. On the same day the Edward Ingraham Lounge was dedicated by Mrs. Edward Ingraham. Mr. Ingraham was a longtime member of the Lesley College Corporation and the Board of Trustees. He was Chairman of the Board from 1947 to 1950.

Lesley girls are filled with pride in their new dormitory. More than this—they are proud of the tradition which is its foundation.

President Trentwell Mason White and Mrs. Edward Ingraham

C. Goldberg, A. Ciolo, Mrs. McElarney, J. Lef, J. Lane, C. Helfont, J. Leonard, K. Halloran, C. Berman, J. Robertson, S. Bromberg, P. Weinstein.

THE PENGUIN CLUB

WE are proud as punch of our new Bennie . . . the Oscar of the printing industry. This award statuette was presented to Wm. J. KELLER Inc. by a jury of professional printers at the annual convention of the PRINTING INDUSTRIES OF AMERICA, meeting in Dallas.

The fact that Keller wins occasional prizes is not, however, important. What is important to us is the continuing loyalty of our customers, for whom we keep plugging away with yearbook service, design and artwork . . . plus the really superior printing process of Velvatone.
