*I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart,
which shall not be put out.
II Esdras XIV*

Preface

*The light that guides our way
Glowed in the sunrise of our Freshman year
One spark, one dream, a four year span
Fed with guidance, study and inspiration
Burning with friendship's love and glow
Bursts forward like a giant nova.
And now, even at this
The sunset of our years at Lesley
That light still shines
To guide our future.*

DR. NATALIE K. VALLEE

*To a friend and confidant
Who gave of her own heart's fire
Sparks to start our glow,
A light to show our way
Understanding, friendship, devotion
To guide us and inspire us
We dedicate our light-filled book.*

*A star is rising,
Another candle lighted
As you Dr. Orton assume Guidance, leadership and responsibility
As our new President.
May your part in Lesley's future
Light the way
Throughout the years.*

*Don A. Orton
President
A.M., Ed. D.*

No verse we make could speak our love,
No words express our wishes for him.
Generations of students have come, have remained,
Have gone forth, and all have felt
His steady glow of light and warmth.
The lights he has set a gleam, gleam on,
The fires he has kindled burn still
To warm and brighten classes yet to come.
Children not yet born will hold the torch
That passes from his hand. Shadows
Fall away, always, from a great light.

Stranger, pause and look
From the dust of ages
Lift this little book,
Turn the tattered pages,
Read me, do not let me die!
Search the fading letters, finding
Steadfast in the broken binding
All that once was I!

*"How fine the day has been! how bright was the sun,
How lovely and joyful the course that he run!
Though he rose in a mist when his race he begun,
And there followed some droppings of rain:
But now the fair traveller's come to the west,
His rays are all gold, and his beauties are best,
He paints the skies gay as he sinks to his rest,
And foretells a bight rising again."*
