Scope and Contents of the Materials

The Lesley Magazine Collection comprises issues from December 1987 to Winter 2008, and also includes the special Centennial issue, 2009-2010. Unrepresented issues will be added to the collection as they are acquired and accessioned.

Lesley Magazine is published biannually by the office of public relations at Lesley University and is distributed without charge to alumni and friends of the University. Lesley Magazine seeks to provide its readership with current, and at times controversial, articles and viewpoints. Publication of authors' viewpoints does not necessarily indicate endorsement of the ideas presented by Lesley Magazine, the Alumni Association, or Lesley University.

Biographical Note

Through publications, media relations, and other communications efforts, the Lesley Office of Public Relations and the Marketing Communications departments disseminate information about the University to a variety of internal and external audiences.

The Office of Public Relations (now Communications) also publishes news.lesley.edu, the University's news publication.
